NEWS AND VIEWS . . .

And What Have You

By BOB CRAIG

Coaches, players and fans all seem justifiably disappointed in the small turnout for football this year. Unless more turn out now that school has started, it will be hard for the Pipers to have a B team this year. At the present time, there are only about 25 to 30 boys taking part and some of these are on the injured or sick list.

The main problem seems to be in the freshman and sophomore classes which have had a problem since they were in junior high.

It is probably not much consolation to anyone, but after looking over the area papers, it seems that this is the trend everywhere. Both Ballinger and Stamford have less boys out this year than normal and both of these schools have an above average turnout yearly.

No one seems to know all of the reasons for the lack of interest in football by so many boys, but it seems likely that life just gets easier each year for most youngsters and the contrast of a physical sport like football is just too much.

For some kids it is just a whole lot easier to find something else to do that does not require so much effort and for others it becomes necessary to work to support a car.

It seems that many parents are opposed to their youngsters playing at least to the point that they do not offer very much encouragement. And it takes a lot of encouragement for these kids to go through the physical punishment it takes to play football.

We hear a lot of people complain about not having a better team than we have or not winning more games, but we do not very often hear of anyone going out of their way to encourage those playing or urging more to come out.

We have always in the past been rather sympathetic with the insurance companies since they are faced with growing costs and the trend to stick to them in court cases but we just about changed our minds last week because of one company.

It seems that this company has been taking our money for liability insurance for about ten years without ever having paid out a penny in claims. But when our son Darrell became 16 and was licensed to drive they decided that they did not want our business anymore. Their policy is not to insure anyone who has not been driving three years.

It would not be so bad if it were not for the fact that the rate goes up and our son has had driver's education.

It is our opinion that a company that would do this should not be allowed to write automobile insurance in the state. If they want to just take the cream off of the top and let some other company take the risks then they do not need to be in the business.

It would seem that they are putting an unfair burden on other companies doing business in Texas.

Fortunately for us, another company will accept our business but even in this case, it is primarily because they already have a considerable amount of our other business.

It seems that there is a flaw somewhere in the state regulations that permit action of this sort. It is likely that this sort of thing has created a hardship on many families.

We are glad that we have not had to use our insurance, but at the same time, it sort of bugs us that they have taken our money all this time and now because of the trend of males under 25 having so many wrecks, they want out. We could understand a company wanting out if their losses get too great but to want out before there are any losses seems unjust.

Abilene Savings to Serve Hamlin With New Mobile Facility Sept. 6

Beginning September 6 savings and loan services will be extended to Hamlin by Texas' first mobile facility provided by Abilene Savings Association. The Abilene Savings mobile facility will be in Hamlin each Saturday morning from 9:00 until noon. The Hamlin mobile facility parking lot is located two blocks north of the traffic light.

The announced extension of savings and loan service to the "Big Country" was made by C. E. (Sonny) Bentley, president of the $75,000,000 Abilene Savings Association.

"This is the first such facility to operate in Texas," Bentley stated. "We are grateful for the opportunity to extend next door service to our friends and neighbors in the Hamlin area. We presently have over 2,000 savings and mortgage loan customers in Jones County and we feel they will find it convenient to use the mobile facility for their financial transactions."

Souvenir gifts and free registration for a grand door prize will be featured with the grand opening of the mobile facility.

Sept. 7-13 Set As 'Soil Testing Week' In Co.

The period September 7-13 will be observed as "Soil Testing Week" throughout Jones County.

And County Agricultural Agent Kirby Clayton said yesterday that every farmer in Jones County is being encouraged to have his soil tested so that recommendations for applying the right amount of fertilizer this year might be made.

Where the farmer anticipates the use of fertilizer, a $2 investment in a soil test could result in considerable savings.

Birger Haterius, chairman of the Jones County Program Building Committee, said yesterday that his group would help as many farmers as possible to get their soil tested before the time arrives for planting small grains this fall.

The intense program of soil testing is under way now in all counties of the Texas Rolling Plains, as part of the massive Rolling Plains Economic Program (R-PEP).

"And a soil test," said Birger, "is the basis of a profitable fertilizer program."

"The Rolling Plains history of proper fertilization is this: for each $1 invested in fertilizer, the farmer may expect the resulting increase in yields to get him $2 at the market."

Farmers are asked to leave their soil samples at the county courthouse office.

Jaycees Plan Trap Shoot Sunday

Jack Haight of Arlington visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Haight, last week.

Gov. Smith Offers Four Safety Suggestions to Labor Day Drivers

AUSTIN — Governor Preston Smith today offered four suggestions to motorists planning trips over the Labor Day holiday weekend. Noting that traffic will be heavy, the Governor urged all drivers to "stay within established speed limits, avoid fatigue, avoid drinking if driving, and drive defensively."

"As your Governor, it is my responsibility to lead our state efforts in traffic safety. I urge all Texans and visitors who will be driving this weekend to use utmost care and good judgement," Smith said.

The Labor Day holiday will officially begin at 6 p.m. Friday, Aug. 29, and run through midnight Monday, Sept. 1. During this time, the Texas Department of Public Safety estimates that 44 persons will be killed in traffic mishaps within the state.

Colonel Wilson E. Speir, director of the Department of Public Safety, joined the Governor in urging all motorists to obey the law. He noted that the DPS would have all available uniformed patrolmen on duty over the holiday weekend in a special "Operation Motorcade."

"We will make full use of manpower and equipment to control the unsafe driver," Speir said, "and will begin full implementation of the new implied consent law at midnight the morning of Sept. 1." The implied consent law provides that drivers suspected of driving while intoxicated may have their driver license suspended if they refuse to take a breath test to determine intoxication.

Gov. Smith pointed out that "our highway system is second to none in the nation. Our highways are meant to be enjoyed and to be used."

"We can enjoy our highway travel this weekend and we can travel safely, but this is up to every individual behind the wheel," the Governor added.

Both the Governor and DPS Director Speir urged Texas motorists to adopt the slogan "Drive to Stay Alive" as their personal motto.

Little League Head Seeks All Uniforms

Harold Fleming, president of the Hamlin Little League, is requesting that all boys who participated in the local baseball program this past season return their uniforms to their managers as soon as possible.

Fleming said that it was very important that all players return the uniforms because the officers of the organization need to know what will be useable for the next year. All uniforms will be stored in a central location to avoid confusion of distribution next season.

After the managers get the uniforms, they will turn them in to Fleming, 533 N. W. Ave. H, or the LL vice president Herbert Crouch, 432 N. W. Ave. F.

The officers are eager to get all the business of Little League in shape and have a meeting to elect new officers so that plans may be made toward next years program.

CIVIL DEFENSE MEMBERS SELLING SAFETY FLARES

The Hamlin Civil Defense Service is selling packets of safety flares as a means of raising needed funds and at the same time provide a traffic safety service to motorists.

The safety flares, made with DuPont strontium nitrate, are suggested for use by motorists who have an emergency on the highway. They are recommended by the National Safety Council and are used by State Highway patrols, to provide an emergency signaling system that warns passing traffic of a dangerous situation.

Three flares come in a waterproof plastic bag designed to hang inside the car. These sell for $1.25 per packet. Boaters are encouraged to carry flares as an emergency warning and distress signal that can be seen for thousands of yards.

These may be purchased from any member of the Hamlin Civil Defense or a Hamlin policeman.

Mark Story of Abilene, who recently returned after a year of service in Vietnam, visited his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Green, last week.

REV. VERGIL SMITH
... new McCauley pastor

Rev. Vergil Smith Is New McCauley Baptist Pastor

Rev. Vergil Smith has been called to pastor the McCauley Baptist Church and will move on the field about Sept. 15.

He is presently associated with Foster Funeral Home, and will continue in this capacity in addition to pastoral duties.

A native of Rule, he formerly lived in Paint Creek Community and was in the service in WW II.

He entered Hardin-Simmons University in 1952. While a student he served as pastor of churches at Plasterco, Potosi, Cross Roads and Rotan.

Following graduation from H-SU he served on the H-SU staff and was later called to First Baptist Church at Turkey. He was there four years and also served as a substitute teacher.

Other churches served include Mayfield Baptist Church, Hale Center, and Bethel Baptist Church in Spur. He was also employed at Campbell Funeral Home in Spur before coming to Hamlin last year.

Work Completed On Cemetery At Neinda for August

The Neinda Cemetery Association has announced that the Neinda Cemetery has been worked for the second time this year and noted that the alleys had been plowed and roads improved. All graves were hand worked with hoes and rakes and where graves needed more soil, this was done.

The cost of the work is covered by contributions from interested persons. Expense of this work varies each year according to the amount of rainfall.

Expense of the clean up in April and August was $484.60. Contributions may be mailed to the Neinda Cemetery Association, John R. Brown, M. H. Castleberry, Irby Weaver or R. P. Williams.

The Association also urges everyone to see the cemetery while it is in good shape.

Library to Offer Swap Service for Paper Back Books

A new service has been added at Harden Memorial Library, according to Mrs. V. E. Holt, librarian.

The added service "One for One," will give citizens a chance to exchange paper back books. The paper back books are not usually used in libraries because of the time of use is shorter than hard bound volumes. For this reason, it is not feasible to accession the paper backs. A special shelf will be designated for the paper backs.

In the "One for One" program, a person brings a paper back book, places it on the special shelf, and chooses a new title. Continued use of the system is urged to keep a good rotation of book titles. Also, Mrs. Holt said, books donated would be appreciated.

Pipers to Scrimmage Andrews At Lamesa

Rated fifth in tough District 7-AA by the Abilene Reporter-News, the Pied Pipers will get their first test Friday night when they meet AAA Andrews in Lamesa in their first scrimmage. The scrimmage is due to start at 7:30.

Andrews is expected to have a better team this year than the strong one they had last year when the Pipers scrimmaged them at Post.

Coach Joe Youngblood says that he still has a number of positions open and will be looking at several boys in the scrimmage. He has four offensive starters back from last year and six who started on defense.

The big question mark for the total program is the lack of younger boys out this year and this is creating a problem on the B Team.

Youngblood said that a couple of the boys he is counting on this year are out with sickness and injury. Earl Webb, who made a fine showing last year on the B team, has been in the hospital, and Gary Smith, who was a starter last year, had a knee operation three weeks ago and is expected to miss the first part of the season.

Also missing this year is Hector Orna, a starter last year that was expected to be a mainstay in the line this year, has moved to Washington.

Some of the boys that will be starters Friday night are Guards Jerry Braley and Charlie Sellers, Tackles Gary Maberry and Bill Hodnett, Quarterback Charlie Shira and Halfbacks Robert Bolden and Spencer Ford.

Shelton Marshall, Don Bockman and Reginald Titus are working at fullback and tight end with two of the boys to fill these positions. Edward Johnson is working at the tackle and guard positions and Greg Perrin is working at center along with Darrell Craig who is also working at tackle.

MRS. TERRY WAYNE HAMRICK

Robertson-Hamrick Vows Read Saturday

Revonna Kay Robertson and Terry Wayne Hamrick were married here Saturday evening at half after seven in the First Baptist Church. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Revis Olsen Robertson of Hamlin and Mr. and Mrs. N. V. Hamrick of Abilene.

Rev. Max Brown, pastor, officiated. Mrs. Marvin Carlton was organist. Donnelle Hill sang "Whither Thou Goest," "Each for the Other" and "The Wedding Prayer."

Martha Marie Robertson was maid of honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were Marilyn Forbus of Loraine and Mrs. Dale Davis of Arlington, sister of the bridegroom.

Melynda and Belynda Davis of Arlington, nieces of the bridegroom, were flower girls and Scott Hamrick of Kennedale, nephew of the groom, was ring bearer.

Candlelighters were David Hamrick of Kennedale, nephew of the bridegroom, and Guy Lewis Tidmore of Richardson, cousin of the bride.

Don Hamrick of Kennedale was his brother's best man. Groomsmen were Johnny Hamrick of Abilene, brother of the bridegroom, and Dale Davis of Arlington, brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

Ushers were Billy Reed of Abilene and Jud Gantz, of Fort Worth, cousin of the bridegroom.

The couple stood before the altar flanked by branched candelabra decorated with English ivy. Centering the altar was a wrought iron prayer bench, urns of white daisies and cathedral candlesticks bedecked with daisies.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of jewel crepe and hand beaded rose design chintilly lace, designed and made by her mother. The gown was a princess empire gown with self fabric band and bows over the empire seam. The bodice overlaid with lace was fashioned with a high neckline outlined with seed pearls and long tapered sleeves that came to points over the hands. Garlands of lace appliques detailed with pearls and frosted crystals followed the princess seaming on front skirt from self bows on bodice to hemline. The chapel length circular train, attached to dress under band in back, was enhanced with hand beaded lace appliques an edged in a wide border of scalloped matching lace. Her elbow length veil of illusion fell from a sunburstshaped headdress of pearls and iridescent crystals.

She carried a cattleya orchid centering a cascade of Stephanotis and pearls on a lace covered Bible.

The maid of honor's sleeveless daffodil yellow crepe empire gown was accented with drop pearls and featured a slightly lowered square neckline in front and low square neckline in back. Back fullness extended from a matching crepe Dior bow. A Dior bow of matching crepe held her double veil. She carried a cascade of white daisy pom poms with yellow and apple green streamers centered with a votive candle.

The bridesmaids wore daffodil yellow crepe gowns similar to that of the maid of honor and carried daisy pom pom bouquets.

The reception was hosted by the bride's parents in Fellowship Hall.

Wanda Hamrick of Abilene, sister of the groom, registered guests. Mrs. Don Hamrick of Kennedale, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, and Carolyn Hamrick of Abilene, sister of the groom, served. Others helping with the reception were Kathy Sadler of Pattison and Sharon and Bruce Tidmore of Richardson, cousins of the bride, and Janna Hamrick of Kennedale, niece of the bridegroom.

After a wedding trip to Carlsbad Caverns and Big Bend the couple will be at home Sept. 1, at Mary K Apartments, Apt. 2, 705 S. Center St. in Arlington.

The bridegroom, a graduate of Abilene High School, attended two years at H-SU. He is employed at the Institute of Electrical Technology in Fort Worth.

FROM THE FILES . . .

FORTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
(August 29, 1924)

The Hamlin School Board has authorized the Hamlin school to be opened Wednesday, September 10th. The faculty will be in session the two preceding days, the 8th and 9th, of September, making extensive preparations for the beginning of their work.

There are seventeen teachers in the faculty. Eleven of these are strangers to Hamlin.

Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson was leading Felix D. Robertson for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination by 92,033 votes when the Texas Election Bureau had tabulated 777,381 votes at 7 p.m., Tuesday. This represented returns from 241 of the State's 252 counties, 189 of them being complete. The bureau will make no further tabulations until the complete vote has been received.

Barry Miller in the final tabulation continued to hold his lead over W. C. Edwards for lieutenant Governor, his majority standing at 15,372.

Hamlin Herald: All is ready for the opening of cotton. With a good rain, then the election over and cotton opening, there will be but little more to think about except banking the cold cash.

(To Which State Press Says:)--
How can you think of it as cold cash in weather like this? Unless September shall be more temperate than lots of Septembers have been, Texas' cotton money may burn a hole in her pocket.

TWENTY YEARS AGO
(August 26, 1949)

Formation of a gun and rod club in Hamlin with establishment of a trap shooting range, was announced this week by a group of local sportsmen.

An outbreak of typhoid fever in Hamlin during the past few weeks was said to be traceable to open, outdoor toilets, according to Dr. E. J. Hawkins, city health officer.

Holly Toler, mayor in a conversation with The Herald, said the city is anxious to abate the menace of open toilets, and pledged that a study will be made of the matter to see what can be worked out.

He said it is hoped of city officials that stern action will not be necessary, and appealed to property owners and tenants to clean up their premises to avoid harsh action by the city.

TEN YEARS AGO
(August 27, 1959)

In a transaction completed last week Weldon Carlton, longtime hardware merchant and farmer, became the owner of the former Teague Implement Company. He took charge last Wednesday.

The sale was announced by Mrs. Tom Teague, and her son-in-law, L. C. Bonds, who has operated the business for several years.

The John Deere farm implement agency was originally handled in Hamlin by the old Bryant Link Company. Tom Teague bought the business in 1950 and moved it to East Lake Drive.

Name of the new concern will be Carlton Implement Company. The John Deere agency will be retained and expanded he says. A. B. Carlton is the parts manager. A complete service department will be maintained. In addition to the John Deere line of tractors and implements other farm and ranch tools and some hardware will be handled at the business.

Carlton announces that Henry Jackson has been named manager of Carlton Hardware, and Dan Howard has returned to the store as an assistant.

First bale of 1959 cotton in the Hamlin territory was brought to town Monday morning by Wayne Hodnett, farming three miles southeast of town.

The 2,050 pounds of seed cotton gathered by Hodnett from about 10 acres ginned a 466-pound bale and netted 900 pounds of cotton seed.

Some 1,100 young folks of the Hamlin community will throw down their bathing suits, fishing poles and vacationland folders this weekend and traipse back to school classes in earnest next Monday as the 1959-60 school term will find all five Hamlin schools in operation.

Ann Richey, state correspondent secretary of the Future Homemakers of America and a senior student at Hamlin High School, left Monday to attend a state executive council meeting of FHA in Austin. She was accompanied by her sponsor, Mrs. Joe Wayne Carter.

Neinda Philosopher Takes Issue With Expert Who Claims 3 Hours Sleep A Night Is Enough

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route One interrupts his nap to write the following.

Dear editor:

I didn't object, since I was about through with my nap anyway, when a newspaper carried by a light breeze landed on my face and woke me up the other afternoon — it was a good thing too because the shade I started out in had moved off and left me in the sun — and after I came to I looked the paper over.

A headline immediately caught my eye: "Doctor Says Man's Sleep Will Be Reduced To 3 Hours."

According to it, a British doctor claims people sleep too much, says the idea you should get 8 hours of sleep every night is nonsense, that five or six is enough and 3 is better.

This is a matter I'm going to have to sleep on before I come to a decision.

In the first place, I have noticed that same of the happiest hours of young parents take place when the youngster is asleep, and while 3 hours is some relief, 8 is better still. In this connection, it should be pointed out that the doctor who is proposing only 3 hours is now 70.

You show me a kid that sleeps only 3 hours and I'll show you a set of parents ready to collapse. Furthermore, if people stay awake 21 hours out of every 24, you can multiply by a third the total traffic congestion, air pollution, noise, street rioting, etc. we're now getting.

In fact, probably what we need is somebody to put the world down for an 8-hour nap every other day and 8 hours of sleep every night.

One of the main troubles with the world is that the people who are running it don't get enough sleep. You can't make me believe they'd get us in the fixes they do if they'd waked up clear-headed and refreshed any day you want to mention.

My theory developed over years of experimenting is that everybody should go to sleep when he's sleepy and wake up when he's not, and if 3 hours will hold you, all right, but keep quite at least till dawn.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

"LABOR IS LIFE"

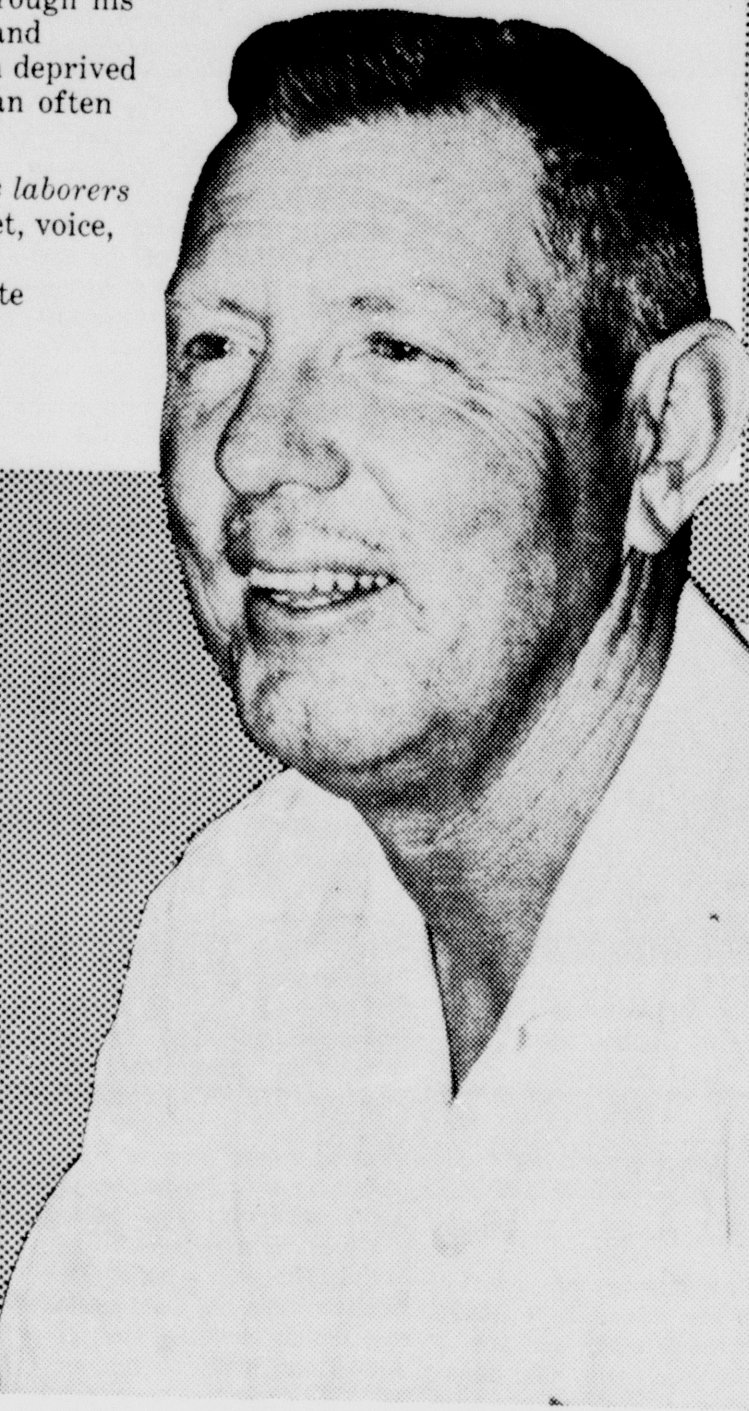

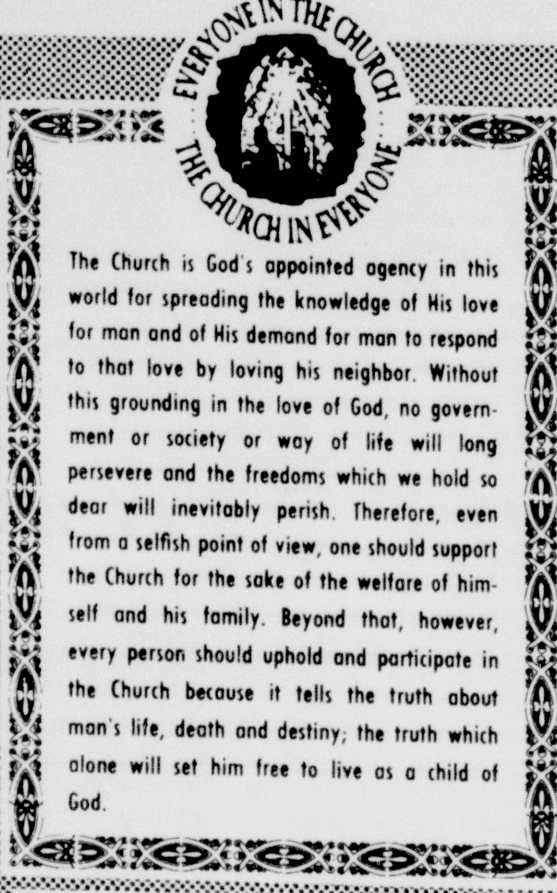

Carlyle

Let's talk about labor — work, if you please, for that is what labor is. Labor has come a long, long way since ancient times when work was closely related to slavery. Aristotle described a slave as "a tool with life in it." In the Middle Ages, labor gained dignity and respect as slavery declined and Christianity spread. Then, later in the 1700's and 1800's the industrial revolution created conditions that led to the modern labor movements. Today labor has gained respect, wages and working conditions hitherto unknown before.

Labor is life. Work is satisfying. Through his work a man accomplishes, and creates, and provides for himself and his family. When deprived of the opportunity or ability to work, man often becomes depressed, even ill.

I Corinthians 3:9 tells us that "We are laborers together with God." We are His hands, feet, voice, and compassionate heart here on earth to spread the gospel, lift up the poor, eradicate ignorance and destroy disease.

Honor God and Labor this week by attending church.

New Traffic Law Requires Slow Drivers to Keep to Right Lane

AUSTIN, — "Slow-poke" drivers — a longtime hazard and source of irritation on the state's high-speed roads will soon have to speed up or keep right when traveling on divided highways in the Lone Star State, the Texas Safety Association noted today.

Under a new law, going into effect Monday, September 1, vehicles traveling at less than the normal speed of traffic on divided highways must be driven in the right-hand lane or as close as practicable to the right-hand curb or edge of the roadway — except when passing.

In commenting on the new law, the Safety Association expresses hope that the traffic measure will be a practical solution to the mounting problems of slow drivers who tie-up traffic on heavy traveled roads and are frequently a contributing factor in traffic crashes.

The new law should also ease the tension of drivers who use the high-speed inside lanes on divided highways and not only find it mechanical.

Another provision of the new traffic law calls for all slow moving traffic to stay right of the center line on roadways having four or more lanes of traffic — except when authorized to go to the left by traffic control devices, or when making left turns into or from an alley, private roads or driveways, regardless of whether there is a double yellow stripe or not.

Stanley C. Smith Gets BBA Degree From Texas Tech

Stanley C. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Smith, 220 S. W. Fifth St., received a BBA degree with major in accounting from Texas Technological College Saturday.

Smith, a member of Beta Alpha Psi national professional and honorary accounting fraternity, was on the Dean's List while attending Tech.

After Sept. 1 he will be employed by Arthur Young Accounting Co. in Houston.

cally difficult, but also emotionally difficult to cope with slow drivers, the Safety Association continued.

Many drivers become quite irritated when there is no safe way to pass a slow driver. They often take risks that they would not ordinarily take and wind up in trouble.

AUSTIN, — Sharp division between the Texas Senate and House was responsible for the tough tax fight in the final days of the special session of the Legislature.

It was not possible to get a majority of the Senate to agree on a tax bill tilted toward sales taxes, while the House majority favored that route.

In past years, it has been the other way around, with the Senate sales-tax minded and the House reluctant.

This attitude goes back to the 1930's, when 59 members of the House blocked the "transaction tax" proposed as a constitutional amendment by Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel, and approved by the Senate.

But the one-man, one-vote decision of the U. S. Supreme Court made the Senate more city-minded, and switched the role of the two houses.

Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes, Speaker Gus Mutscher and Gov. Preston Smith all were anxious to get the tax-and-spend issues settled by Tuesday's adjournment, because they had other engagements.

Barnes is president of the National Legislative Council, which opened its annual meeting in St. Louis, Mo., Wednesday.

Mutscher planned to head a delegation of House members to the same conference.

And Governor Smith was ready for the National Governors Conference in Colorado Springs, Colo., starting Sept. 1.

ANTI-CRIME PROJECTS FUNDED — Criminal Justice Council of the Governor's office has recommended $252,499 in action grants for new local programs to fight crime.

Council voted funds from $1.1 million allocated Texas by the federal government under the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968. State and local matching funds also must be provided.

Largest of grants, $127,000, would go to Houston for an area-wide information and communication system to be tied into a computer and connected with a state and national system.

Fort Worth will receive $60,000 for a police-community relations program; Travis County $35,000 to expand its model adult probation project; North Central Texas Council of Governments $21,000 for a police training program;

San Antonio police department $19,680 for a police-community relations seminar program and $7339 for a Bexar County juvenile delinquency prevention project; Galveston $9,360 for a police department management survey; Houston $6,550 for a state school

OIL ALLOWABLE TRIMMED—For the third straight month, Railroad Commission cut statewide oil allowable, setting it at 52.1 per cent of potential.

September allowable allows maximum per day of 3,237,997 barrels. This compares with 3,284,263 barrels daily under August 53.1 per cent order.

Six of 14 major crude purchasers sought more oil next month than in August, three wanted less and five the same amount.

Allowable reached 21-year peak in June when it rose to 63.5 per cent, but was cut to 54.7 per cent in July and 53.1 per cent for August. Railroad Commission Chairman Ben Ramsey said Texas crude oil stocks early this month totalled 104 million barrels, 20,000 more than a week ago.
